

Speed Up at the Overtaking Lane

I like to drive, on a sunny Sunday afternoon get out there for an easy ride, lookin' around at the countryside I'm cool, in the zone today, truckin' along doing 80 ks just slow on down if I'm in your way never mind that line behind, get closer all the time slow down Jack, gotta hold 'em back ,till I see the passing sign

Speed up - at the overtaking lane, step on the gas, don't let 'em by, gotta keep ahead of the other guy Speed up - at the overtaking lane put the pedal down, top gear at last, look at everybody going by so fast, speed up, speed up.....then

Slow down, at the other end slide on back down through the gears, do 75 again say what? say what you say? I don't know why that crazy fool behind me can't keep his cool Hang on now, there's another sign, for a passing lane ahead there's a lotta room, it's a double lane, and the blood rush to my head

Ah... see... I told you so you overtake at a hundred & forty, no surprise that you got caught he gotcha - but he didn't get me....and if you'd'a just hung in behind that traffic cop woulda drove on by

hang on now, there's another sign, for a passing lane ahead
there's a lotta room, it's a double lane, and the blood rush to my head

Speed Up.....
